 - 6.3.2 any holder of shares of the class in question present in person or by proxy may demand a poll; and
 - 6.3.3 each holder of the shares of the class shall, on a poll, have one vote in respect of every share of the class held by him.
- 6.4 This Article shall apply to the variation or abrogation of the special rights attached to some only of the shares of any class as if each group of shares of the class differently treated formed a separate class, the special rights of which were to be varied or abrogated.
- 6.5 For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of these Articles relating to meetings of the Company shall apply, with necessary modifications, to any separate meeting of the holders of shares of a class held otherwise than in connection with the variation or abrogation of the rights attached to shares of that class.
- 6.6 Subject to the terms of issue or the rights attached to any shares, the rights or privileges attached to any class of shares shall be deemed not to be varied or abrogated by the Directors resolving that a class of shares is to become or cease to be a Participating Security.
- 6.7 The rights attached to any class of shares shall not (unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the shares of that class) be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking in all respects (save as to the date from which such new shares shall rank for dividend) pari passu therewith or by the purchase or redemption by the Company of any of its own shares in accordance with the provisions of the Act and these Articles.

6.8 Shares shall not be subject to any lien in favour of the Company.

7. SHARE CERTIFICATES

7.1 Certificated Shares

- 7.1.1 Every Shareholder, except a person in respect of whom the Company is not by law required to complete and have ready for delivery a certificate, shall be entitled without payment to one certificate for all the shares registered in his name or, if shares of more than one class are registered in his name, to a separate certificate for each class of shares so registered. Every certificate shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which it is issued, the distinctive numbers, if any, of such shares and the amounts paid up on them respectively.
- 7.1.2 Any Shareholder receiving a certificate shall indemnify and hold the Company and the Directors and officers harmless from any loss or liability which it or they may incur by reason of any wrongful or fraudulent use of such certificate or representation made by any person by virtue of the possession of such certificate.
- 7.1.3 A certificate shall be delivered to a holder of certificated shares within two months after the issue or, as the case may be, the lodging with the Company of the transfer of the shares concerned. A certificate shall be delivered in accordance with, and in the time period permitted by the rules and regulations applicable to any Relevant Stock Exchange and of any applicable Relevant System to any holder of uncertificated shares following the change of those shares to certificated form.
- 7.1.4 Every certificate for shares or any other form of security shall be executed by the Company in such manner as the Directors may authorise having regard to the terms of issue and the requirements of any Relevant Stock Exchange on which the Company's shares are dealt or traded. The Directors may determine that the signatures of one or more of the Directors or of the Secretary may be affixed to such certificates by mechanical or electronic means or may be printed thereon. No certificate shall be issued representing shares of more than one class.
- 7.1.5 The Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of certificated shares held jointly by two or more persons. Delivery of a certificate to the person first named on the register of Shareholders shall be sufficient delivery to all joint holders.
- 7.1.6 Where only some of the shares comprised in a share certificate are transferred, the old certificate shall be cancelled and a new certificate for the balance of the shares issued in lieu, and the Shareholder concerned shall be liable for any attendant and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses as the Directors determine.

- 7.1.7 Subject to Article 7.1.6 and on surrender of the original share certificates for cancellation:
- (a) if any Shareholder requires additional certificates, he shall pay for each additional certificate such reasonable out of pocket expenses as the Directors determine;
 - (b) if a Shareholder holding two or more certificates in respect of his shareholding requires the cancellation of any of those certificates, and the issue of one or more replacement certificates comprising different numbers of shares, he shall pay for each replacement certificate such reasonable out-of-pocket expenses as the Directors determine.
- 7.1.8 If any certificate is defaced, worn-out, lost or destroyed, a new certificate shall be issued without charge (other than reasonable out-of-pocket expenses) and the person requiring the new certificate shall first surrender the defaced or worn-out certificate or give such evidence of the loss or destruction of the certificate and such indemnity to the Company as the Directors may determine.
- 7.1.9 In the case of shares held jointly by several persons, any such request as is mentioned in this Article 7 may be made by any one of the joint holders.

7.2 Uncertificated Shares

- 7.2.1 Subject to the Act and the rules and regulations applicable to any Relevant Stock Exchange and of any applicable Relevant System, the Board, without further consultation with the holders of any shares or other securities, may resolve that any class or series of shares from time to time in issue or to be issued may be issued, held, registered, converted to, transferred or otherwise dealt with in uncertificated form in accordance with the CREST Regulations or Strate CSD Rules and Directives (as applicable) or the rules and regulations applicable to any Relevant Stock Exchange and of any other applicable Relevant System and no provisions of these Articles will apply to any uncertificated share to the extent that they are inconsistent with the holding of such shares in uncertificated form or the transfer of title to any such shares by means of a Relevant System or any provision of CREST Regulations or Strate CSD Rules and Directives (as applicable) or the rules and regulations applicable to any Relevant Stock Exchange and of any applicable other Relevant System..
- 7.2.2 Conversion of shares held in certificated form into shares held in uncertificated form, and vice versa, may be made in such manner as the Board may in its absolute discretion, think fit (subject always to the CREST Regulations or Strate CSD Rules and Directives (as applicable) and the requirements of the Relevant System concerned). The Company shall enter on the relevant Register of Shareholders how many shares are held by each Shareholder in uncertificated form and in certificated form and shall maintain the Register of Shareholders as is required by the CREST Regulations or Strate CSD Rules and Directives (as applicable) and the Relevant System concerned. Notwithstanding any provision of these Articles, a class or series of shares shall not be treated as two classes by virtue only of that class or series comprising both certificated shares and uncertificated shares or as a result of any provision of these Articles or the CREST Regulations or Strate CSD Rules and Directives (as applicable) or the rules and regulations of any other applicable Relevant System which apply only in respect of certificated or uncertificated shares.

8. TRANSFER OF SHARES

- 8.1 All shares which are traded on a Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing must be fully paid up when issued and freely transferable except as otherwise required by law.
- 8.2 Subject to the rules and regulations applicable to the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing, each Shareholder may transfer all or any of his shares in the case of certificated shares by written instrument of transfer in any form approved by the Directors. Any written instrument shall contain the name and address of the transferee and be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and (in the case of a transfer of a share which is not fully paid) by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of Shareholders in respect of it.
- 8.3 The Company shall, on receipt of an instrument of transfer complying with Article 8.2, cause the name of the transferee of the share to be entered in the register of Shareholders unless the Directors resolve to refuse or delay the registration of the transfer.
- 8.4 Subject to the Act and these Articles, a transfer of a share in uncertificated form may be effected by means of a Relevant System and the operator of the Relevant System shall act as agent of the Shareholder for the purpose of the transfer of shares.
- 8.5 Subject to the rules and regulations applicable to the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing, the Directors may in their absolute discretion, provided that such discretion may not be exercised in such a way as to prevent dealings in such shares from taking place on an open and proper basis in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing, and without giving any reason resolve to refuse or delay the transfer of a certificated share unless:
 - 8.5.1 it is in respect of a share which is fully paid up;
 - 8.5.2 it is in favour of a single transferee or not more than four joint transferees;
 - 8.5.3 it is delivered for registration to the Transfer Agent of the Company, or such other person as the Directors may from time to time appoint, accompanied (except in the case of a transfer where a certificate has not been required to be issued) by the certificate of the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor and the due execution by him of the transfer instrument or if the transfer instrument is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person to do so; and
 - 8.5.4 the holding of such shares would not result in a regulatory, pecuniary, legal, taxation or material administrative disadvantage for the Company or the Shareholders as a whole including, but not limited to, where such a disadvantage would arise out of the transfer of any share to a Prohibited Person.

- 8.6 The Board may refuse to register the transfer of a share in uncertificated form (or interest in such share) in any circumstances where refusal is permitted by the rules and practices of the operator in the Relevant System provided that exercise of such powers does not disturb the market in such shares.
- 8.7 In addition, the Board may, subject to the rules and regulations of any applicable Relevant System, refuse to register a transfer of shares (whether fully paid or not) in favour of more than four persons jointly or made to or by an infant or a person with a mental disorder or a Prohibited Person.
- 8.8 Without (in relation to a Participating Security) limiting Article 8.5, the Directors may determine that a transfer of any share shall not be made, and the Directors shall refuse to register any such transfer of shares which is:
- 8.8.1 made to a minor;
 - 8.8.2 made to a bankrupt;
 - 8.8.3 made to any person who is, or may be, suffering from mental disorder and either:
 - (a) has been admitted to hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for treatment under the Mental Health Act 1983 (an Act of Parliament) or any similar statute relating to mental health; or
 - (b) an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in matters concerning mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a receiver, curator bonis or other person to exercise powers with respect to his property or affairs.
 - 8.8.4 made to a Prohibited Person.
- 8.9 If the Directors refuse to register a transfer of a share they shall, as soon as possible after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send notice of the refusal to the transferee. Any instrument of transfer that the Directors refuse to register shall (except in the case of suspected fraud) be returned to the person depositing it. All instruments of transfer which are registered may be retained by the Company.
- 8.10 Subject to the rules and regulations applicable to the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing and of any applicable Relevant System the registration of transfers of shares or any class of shares may be suspended at such times and for such periods (not exceeding thirty days in any year) as the Directors may from time to time determine (subject to the CREST Regulations and Strate CSD Rules and Directives or the rules and regulations of any applicable Relevant System). Notice of closure of the register of Shareholders shall be given in accordance with the requirements of the Act.
- 8.11 If the Directors are satisfied that an instrument of transfer relating to shares has been signed but that the instrument has been lost or destroyed, the Directors may:
- 8.11.1 accept such evidence of the transfer of shares as they consider appropriate; and
 - 8.11.2 determine that the transferee's name should be entered in the register of Shareholders notwithstanding the absence of the instrument of transfer.

- 8.12 No fee shall be charged for registration of a transfer or on the registration of any probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, notice or other instrument relating to or affecting the title to any shares or otherwise for making any entry in the register of Shareholders affecting the title of any shares.

9. COMPULSORY TRANSFER OF SHARES

- 9.1 If it shall come to the notice of the Board that any shares are or may be owned or held directly or beneficially by any Prohibited Person the Board may serve written notice (hereinafter called a "Transfer Notice") upon the person (or any one of such persons whose shares are registered in joint names) appearing in the register of Shareholders as the holder (the "Vendor") of any of the shares concerned (the "Prohibited Shares") requiring the Vendor within ten days (or such extended time as in all the circumstances the Board consider reasonable) to transfer (and/or procure the disposal of interests in) the Prohibited Shares to another person who, in the sole and conclusive determination of the Board, would not be a Prohibited Person (such a person being hereinafter called an "Eligible Transferee"). On and after the date of such Transfer Notice, and until registration of a transfer of the Prohibited Shares to which it relates pursuant to the provisions referred to in this Article 9.1 or Article 9.2, the rights and privileges attaching to the Prohibited Shares will be suspended and not capable of exercise.
- 9.2 If within ten days after the giving of a Transfer Notice (or such extended time as in the circumstances the Board consider reasonable) the Transfer Notice has not been complied with to the satisfaction of the Board, the Company may sell the Prohibited Shares on behalf of the holder thereof by instructing an approved relevant stock exchange member firm to sell them at the best price reasonably obtainable at the time of sale to any one or more Eligible Transferees. To give effect to a sale the Board may authorise in writing any officer or employee or the Secretary to transfer the Prohibited Shares on behalf of the holder thereof (or any person who is automatically entitled to the shares by transmission or by law) or to cause the transfer of the Prohibited Shares to the transferee and in relation to an uncertificated share may require the operator to convert the share into certificated form and an instrument of transfer executed by that person shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the Prohibited Shares. The transferee is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money and the title of the transferee is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings connected to the sale. The net proceeds of the sale of the Prohibited Shares, after payment of the Company's costs of the sale, shall be paid by the Company to the Vendor or, if reasonable enquiries have failed to establish the location of the Vendor, into a trust account at a bank designated by the Company, the associated costs of which shall be borne by such trust account. The Company may register or cause the registration of the transferee as holder of the Prohibited Shares and thereupon the transferee shall become absolutely entitled thereto.
- 9.3 A person who becomes aware that he is, or is likely to be, a Prohibited Person, shall forthwith, unless he has already received a Transfer Notice pursuant to the provisions referred to in this Article 9 either transfer the shares to one or more Eligible Transferees or give a request in writing to the Board for the issue of a Transfer Notice in accordance with the provisions referred to in this Article 9. Every such request shall, in the case of certificated shares, be accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates.

- 9.4 Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Board shall, unless any Director has reason to believe otherwise, be entitled to assume without enquiry that none of the shares are held in such a way as to entitle the Board to serve a Transfer Notice in respect thereof. The Board may, however, at any time and from time to time call upon any holder (or any one of joint holders or a person who is automatically entitled to the shares by transmission or by law) of shares by notice in writing to provide such information and evidence as they require upon any matter connected with or in relation to such holders of shares. In the event of such information and evidence not being so provided within such reasonable period (not being less than ten clear days after service of the notice requiring the same) as may be specified by the Board in the said notice, the Board may, in its absolute discretion, treat any share held by such a holder or joint holders or person who is automatically entitled to the shares by transmission or by law as being held in such a way as to entitle them to service a Transfer Notice in respect thereof.
- 9.5 The Board will not be required to give any reasons for any decision, determination or declaration taken or made in accordance with these provisions. The exercise of the powers conferred by the provisions referred to in Articles 9.1 to 9.4 may not be questioned or invalidated in any case on the grounds that there was insufficient evidence of direct or indirect beneficial ownership or holding of shares by any person or that the true direct or beneficial owner or holder of any shares was otherwise than as appeared to the Board at the relevant date provided that the said powers have been exercised in good faith.

10. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 10.1 If a Shareholder dies, the survivor(s), where the deceased was a joint holder, and his personal representatives where he was a sole or the only surviving holder, shall be the only person or persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares; but nothing in these Articles shall release the estate of a deceased holder from any liability in respect of any share held by him solely or jointly.
- 10.2 A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Shareholder may, upon producing such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require, elect either to become the registered holder of the share by giving notice to the Company to that effect or have some other person registered as the transferee. If he elects to have some other person registered he shall, in the case of a certificated share, execute an instrument of transfer of such shares to that person and, in the case of an uncertificated share, either procure that all appropriate instructions are given by means of the Relevant System to effect the transfer of such share to such person or change the uncertificated to certificated form and then execute an instrument of transfer of such share to such person. Any instrument of transfer of the shares must be in accordance with the provisions of Article 8.
- 10.3 Any person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of a Shareholder or of any other event giving rise to transmission shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, unless and until he is registered as a Shareholder in respect of the share or unless the Directors otherwise determine, be entitled in respect of it to receive notice of, or to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to, meetings of the Company. The Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer such share to some other person and, if such notice is not complied with within ninety days after service, the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of such share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

11. ODD-LOT OFFERS

11.1 The Company shall be entitled to implement an odd-lot offer in accordance with the provisions of this Article 11 in accordance with the restrictions and procedures imposed by the Relevant Stock Exchange.

11.2 If, upon implementation of any odd-lot offer made by the Company, there are holders of shares holding in aggregate less than 100 (one hundred) shares, or such other number of shares as determined by the Relevant Stock Exchange as amounting to an odd-lot ("Odd-Lots") in the Company ("Odd-Lot Holders"), then the Company shall, save in respect of Odd-Lot Holders who have elected to retain their Odd-Lots in the Company –

11.2.1 cause the Odd-Lots to be expropriated by the Company from the Odd-Lot Holders who have not made an election to retain their Odd-Lots in the Company or sold in such manner as the Directors may direct; and 11.2.2 procure that the proceeds of such expropriation or sales are paid to such Odd-Lot Holders.

11.3 All unclaimed proceeds of such sales (other than monetary proceeds) may be invested, provided that all monies due to Shareholders must be held by the Company in trust. Subject to the laws of prescription, proceeds of such sales which remain unclaimed for a period of 3 (three) years from the date on which they were declared (or such longer period as may be required under the laws of prescription) may be declared forfeited by the Directors for the benefit of the Company. The Directors may at any time annul such forfeiture upon such conditions (if any) as they think fit.

12. MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

12.1 The Directors may convene meetings of the Shareholders or any class of Shareholders for the purposes of adhering to the rules and regulations applicable to the Relevant Stock Exchange upon which the Company has its primary listing, at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as they consider appropriate.

12.2 Upon the written request of a Shareholder or Shareholders entitled to exercise fifteen per cent or more of the Voting Rights in respect of the matter for which the meeting is requested, the Directors shall convene a meeting of Shareholders or class of Shareholders.

12.3 When convening a Shareholders' meeting or a meeting of a class of Shareholders, the following notice periods shall apply -

12.3.1 for such time as the Company is registered as an external company in South Africa, and where a non-electronic notice of a Shareholders' meeting, or annual financial statements, is to be distributed from the registered office of the Company, at least twenty business days' notice of such meeting must be given to all Shareholders entitled to thereto. Where such notice, or annual financial statements, is distributed electronically, by airmail or otherwise from the South African transfer secretaries, at least fifteen business days' notice of such meeting must be given to all Shareholders entitled thereto.

- 12.4 where the Company has been deregistered as an external Company in South Africa, the Directors shall give not less than fifteen business days' notice of such meeting. Irrespective of the manner in which notice of a meeting is given, either generally or to a specific shareholder, no Shareholder shall be entitled to more than fifteen business days' notice of any meeting.
- 12.5 Notice of every meeting of Shareholders shall be given to all Shareholders whose names on the date the notice is given appear as Shareholders in the register of Shareholders and who are entitled to vote at the meeting, and shall be released on SENS and provided to the Relevant Exchange upon which the Company has a primary listing. Subject to the rules and regulations applicable to the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing the Directors may fix, as the record date for determining those Shareholders that are entitled to vote at the meeting, the date notice is given of the meeting, or such other date as may be specified in the notice, being a date not earlier than the date of the notice.
- 12.6 The notice to Shareholders shall specify:
- 12.6.1 the place, the day and the time of the meeting;
 - 12.6.2 the nature of the business to be considered; and
 - 12.6.3 with reasonable prominence that a Shareholder entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and, on a poll, vote instead of him, and that a proxy need not be a Shareholder.
- 12.7 A meeting of Shareholders or a class of Shareholders held in contravention of the notice requirement pursuant to Article 12.3, is valid if a Shareholder or Shareholders holding at least ninety per cent of the total Voting Rights on all the matters to be considered at the meeting have waived notice of the meeting and, for this purpose, the presence of a Shareholder at the meeting shall constitute a waiver in relation to all the shares which that Shareholder holds.
- 12.8 The inadvertent failure of the Directors to give notice of a meeting to a Shareholder or the fact that a Shareholder has not received notice, does not invalidate the meeting.
- 12.9 A Shareholder may be represented at a meeting of Shareholders or a class of Shareholders by a proxy who may speak and vote on behalf of the Shareholder. Deposit of an instrument of proxy shall not preclude a Shareholder from attending and voting in person at the meeting in respect of which the proxy is appointed or at any adjournment of it.
- 12.10 The appointment of a proxy shall unless the contrary is stated in it be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates and where it is stated to apply to more than one meeting, be valid for all such meetings as well as for any adjournment of any such meetings.

12.11 The appointment of a proxy, shall:

12.11.1 in the case of an instrument in writing not contained in an electronic communication, be delivered to the registered office or South African transfer secretaries (or such other address or location as may be specified for that purpose in or by way of note to the notice convening the meeting) not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument is authorised to vote;

12.11.2 in the case of an appointment contained in an electronic communication, be communicated so as to be delivered to an address or location (including any number) specified in the notice convening the meeting (or in any instrument of proxy sent out, or invitation contained in an electronic communication to appoint a proxy issued by or on behalf of the Company in relation to the meeting) not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote;

12.11.3 in the case of a poll taken more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, be delivered as aforesaid not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or

12.11.4 in the case of a poll not taken forthwith but taken not more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the Chairman, the Secretary, or any Director.

12.12 An appointment of a proxy which is not delivered in a manner permitted by Article 12.11 may be treated by the Chairman as invalid. An appointment of proxy contained in an electronic communication found by the Company to contain a computer virus shall not be accepted by the Company and shall be invalid.

12.13 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in substantially the following form or such other form as the Chairman of the meeting shall accept as properly evidencing the wishes of the Shareholder appointing the proxy.

[NAME OF COMPANY]
I/We being a Shareholder of the above Company HEREBY APPOINT [] of [] or failing him/her [] of [] to be my/our proxy to speak and vote for me/us at the meeting of Shareholders to be held on the [] day of [] and at any adjournment thereof.
(Any restrictions on voting to be inserted here)
Signed this [] day of [] 20[]
Shareholder

12.14 In the event that more than one appointment of a proxy relating to the same share is delivered in a manner permitted by this Article 12 for the purposes of the same meeting, the appointment last delivered or received (whether contained in an electronic communication or not) shall prevail in conferring authority on the person named therein to attend the meeting and vote.

12.15 A vote cast or act done in accordance with the terms of an appointment of a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the appointer, or revocation of the proxy, or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, unless notice in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at the registered office (or such other place as may be specified for delivery of the appointment of the proxy in or by way of the note to the notice convening the meeting) at least one hour before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll at which the vote was given or the act was done.

12.16 Any body corporate which is a Shareholder may, by resolution of its directors or its governing body, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company, or at any meeting of any class of Shareholders, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the body corporate which he represents as that body corporate could exercise if it were an individual Shareholder attending the meeting in person.

12.17 The following applies where shares are jointly owned:

12.17.1 each of the joint owners may be present in person or by proxy at a meeting of Shareholders and may speak as a Shareholder;

12.17.2 if only one of the joint owners is present in person or by proxy, that person may vote on behalf of all joint owners; and 12.17.3 if two or more of the joint owners are present in person or by proxy, they must vote as one.

13. PROCEEDINGS AT MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

13.1 A meeting of Shareholders or class of Shareholders is duly constituted and quorate if, at the commencement of the meeting, there are present in person (in the case of a Shareholder who is an individual) or by a duly appointed representative (in the case of a Shareholder who is a body corporate) or by proxy (in either case) a Shareholder or Shareholders not less than three shareholders holding in aggregate not less than twenty-five per cent of the Voting Rights entitled to be exercised at the meeting. A quorum may comprise Shareholders present in person (in the case of a Shareholder who is an individual) or by duly appointed representative (in the case of a Shareholder who is a body corporate) or by proxy (in either case) in which case such persons may pass a resolution of Shareholders or class of Shareholders and a certificate signed by such persons accompanied, where such person is a proxy, by a copy of the proxy instrument, shall constitute a valid resolution of the Shareholders.

13.2 If within thirty minutes (or such longer interval not exceeding one hour as the Chairman in his absolute discretion thinks fit) from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, or if during a meeting such quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened at the request of Shareholders, shall be dissolved; in any other case, it shall stand adjourned to later on the same day, or to the next business day in the jurisdiction in which the meeting was to have been held at the same time and place or to such other time and place as the Chairman (or, in default the Directors) may determine. If at the adjourned meeting there are present within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting in person (in the case of a Shareholder who is an individual) or by a duly appointed representative (in the case of a Shareholder who is a body corporate) or by proxy (in either case) a Shareholder or Shareholders holding at least ten per cent of the Voting Rights entitled to be exercised at the meeting, those present shall constitute a quorum but otherwise the meeting shall be dissolved. The Company shall give at least seven days' notice of any meeting adjourned through lack of quorum where such meeting is adjourned to a day being not less than fourteen nor more than twenty-eight days thereafter.

- 13.3 A Shareholder shall be deemed to be present at a Shareholders' meeting or a meeting of a class of Shareholders if that person participates by telephone or other electronic means and all Shareholders participating in the meeting are able to communicate with each other.
- 13.4 At every meeting of Shareholders or class of Shareholders, the Chairman of the Board shall preside as Chairman of the meeting. If there is no Chairman of the Board or if the Chairman of the Board is not present at the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or shall be unwilling to act as Chairman, the Deputy Chairman (if any) of the Board shall if present and willing act as Chairman at such meeting. If no Chairman or Deputy Chairman shall be present and willing to act, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to act or, if there be only Director present, he shall be Chairman if willing to act. If no Director is willing to act as Chairman of the meeting or, if no Director is present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be the Chairman. If the Shareholders are unable to choose a Chairman for any reason, then the Shareholder with the most Voting Rights present at the meeting in person (in the case of a Shareholder who is an individual) or by a duly appointed representative (in the case of a Shareholder who is a body corporate) or by proxy (in either case) shall preside as Chairman failing which the longest registered Shareholder present in person (in the case of a Shareholder who is an individual) or by a duly appointed representative (in the case of a Shareholder who is a body corporate) or by proxy (in either case) shall take the chair.
- 13.5 The Chairman may, without the consent of the meeting where a quorum is present, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 13.6 The Chairman may at any time, with or without the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting (whether or not it has commenced or a quorum is present) either without setting an alternative date or time or such time and place as the Directors or the Chairman of the meeting may decide.
- 13.7 When a meeting is adjourned indefinitely without setting an alternative date or time, at least seven days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in such manner as the Directors deem appropriate in the circumstance (which shall as a minimum be by way of an appropriate public announcement). Save as aforesaid, no Shareholder shall be entitled to any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted as such meeting.

13.8 A Director shall notwithstanding that he is not a Shareholder be entitled to attend and speak at any meeting of the Company and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company. The Chairman may invite any person to attend and speak at any meeting of the Company whom the Chairman considers to be equipped by knowledge or experience of the Company's business to assist in the deliberation of the meeting.

14. CONSENT AND VOTING OF SHAREHOLDERS

14.1 Unless otherwise specified in the Act or in the Memorandum or Articles, the exercise by the Shareholders or a class of Shareholders of a power which is given to them under the Act or the Memorandum or Articles shall be by:

14.1.1 a resolution passed at a meeting of the Shareholders or class of Shareholders; or

14.1.2 a resolution consented to in writing by the Shareholders or class of Shareholders, as contemplated in Article 14.9, provided that resolutions may be adopted in this manner only in respect of those matters in respect of which resolutions are not, in terms of the rules of the Relevant Exchange upon which the Company has its primary listing, required to be adopted a meeting to be held in person.

14.2 Subject to any requirement for a higher majority specified in the Act or in the Memorandum or Articles or the rules of the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing, a resolution of Shareholders or a class of Shareholders is passed at a meeting of such Shareholders if it is approved by a Shareholder or Shareholders holding a majority of in excess of fifty per cent of the Voting Rights exercised in relation thereto (in the case of a resolution passed at a meeting) or in excess of fifty per cent of the Voting Rights exercisable in relation thereto (in the case of a written resolution).

14.3 At any meeting a resolution put to a vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (on or before the declaration of the result of the show of hands) directed by the Chairman or demanded by:

14.3.1 at least three Shareholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote;

14.3.2 one or more Shareholders present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the Voting Rights having the right to vote at the meeting; or

14.3.3 one or more Shareholders present in person or by proxy holding shares conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right subject thereto that a demand for poll may be withdrawn with the consent of the Chairman, and in the event that such demand is withdrawn following a show of hands on the resolution in question, the result of the show of hands shall remain valid.

14.4 At any Shareholders' meeting, the Chairman is responsible for deciding in such manner as the Chairman considers appropriate whether any resolution proposed has been carried or not and the result of such decision shall be announced to the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting, and shall be conclusive evidence thereof, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

- 14.5 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter or to the counting of or failure to count any vote except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution if the Chairman decides that it is of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution or may otherwise have affected the decision of the meeting. The decision of the Chairman on such matter shall be final and conclusive.
- 14.6 If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the Chairman, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling.

14.7 Procedures on a poll

- 14.7.1 If a poll is duly directed or demanded it may be taken immediately or, subject to the provisions of Article 14.7.2, at such other time (but being not more than thirty days' after such direction or demand) and place and in such manner as the Chairman may direct, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was directed or demanded. Provided that the time and place at which the poll is to occur is declared by the Chairman at the meeting at which the poll is directed or demanded, no notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.
- 14.7.2 A poll duly demanded on the election of a Chairman if a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. Any business other than upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll.
- 14.7.3 On a poll votes may be given in person or by proxy. A Shareholder entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

14.8 Votes of Shareholders

- 14.8.1 Subject to any special terms as to voting on which any share may have been issued with or may for the time being be held, upon a show of hands every Shareholder who (being an individual) is present in person or by proxy shall on a show of hands have one vote and on a poll every Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for each share of which it is the holder.
- 14.8.2 A Shareholder incapable by reason of mental disorder or otherwise of managing and administering his property and affairs may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his receiver or other person appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction to act on his behalf and any such person may, on a poll, vote by proxy provided that such evidence as the Directors may require of the authority of the person claiming to vote shall have been delivered to the registered office or to such other place and by such means as is specified in accordance with these Articles for the delivery of the appointment of a proxy, not less than forty-eight hours before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which such person claims to vote.

- 14.8.3 Any Shareholder which is a body corporate may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such individual as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of Shareholders or class of Shareholders, and the individual so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same rights on behalf of the Shareholder which the individual represents as that Shareholder could exercise if it were an individual. The Chairman of the meeting at which a vote is cast on behalf of any Shareholder which is a body corporate may call for such evidence of authority of the representative to exercise the rights of the Shareholder as the Chairman may reasonably require.
- 14.8.4 In the case of an equality of votes, whether by show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll was demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to any other vote that he may have.
- 14.8.5 No Shareholder shall, unless the Board otherwise determines, be entitled to vote at any meeting of Shareholders or class of Shareholders unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of the shares held by him in the Company have been paid.
- 14.9 Subject to the rules and regulations applicable to the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing which requires the Company to hold a Shareholder meeting any action that may be taken by the Shareholders or a class of Shareholders at a meeting may also be taken by a resolution consented to in writing, by a Shareholder or Shareholders or the member or members of a class of Shareholders holding in excess of fifty per cent of the Voting Rights in relation thereto (subject to any requirement specified in the Act or the Articles for a resolution to be passed by a particular majority) provided that a copy of the proposed resolution is sent to all of the persons entitled to consent to it. The consent may be in the form of counterparts, each counterpart being signed by one or more Shareholders or by one or more members of the class of Shareholders. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the earliest date upon which Shareholders or members of the class of Shareholders holding a sufficient number of votes to constitute a resolution of Shareholders or the class of Shareholders have consented to the resolution by signed counterparts. If any written resolution of the Shareholders or the class of Shareholders is adopted otherwise than by the unanimous written consent of all Shareholders or all members of the class of Shareholders, a copy of such resolution shall be sent to all Shareholders or all the members of the class of Shareholders not consenting to such resolution forthwith upon it taking effect.

15. DISCLOSURE OF SUBSTANTIAL INTERESTS IN SHARES

- 15.1 Every person who is to his knowledge interested in the Voting Rights of five per cent or more of the shares of any relevant class of shares of the Company, shall without delay, give to the Company notice in writing of the information set out in Article 15.2.

- 15.2 The information referred to in Article 15.1 is as follows:
- 15.2.1 the amount of shares of the relevant class in which he was to his knowledge directly or indirectly interested immediately after the obligation arose and the percentage of Voting Rights in the Company held through those shares; and
 - 15.2.2 the following information: (a) the identity and address of each registered holder of those shares (and person(s) entitled to exercise Voting Rights on behalf of such registered holder, if applicable) and the amount of shares then held by each such holder; (b) the chain of controlled undertakings through which Voting Rights are effectively held, if applicable; and (c) the date on which the threshold was reached or crossed.
- 15.3 Every person who, at any time after the date on which this Article 15 comes into force, ceases to be interested, or becomes aware that he has ceased to be interested, in the Voting Rights of three per cent or more of the shares for the time being of any relevant class of shares of the Company, shall be under an obligation to give to the Company notice in writing of that fact and all the information required under Article 15.1.
- 15.4 Where:
- 15.4.1 a person is to his knowledge, directly or indirectly interested in the Voting Rights of five per cent or more of the shares of any relevant class of shares of the Company; and
 - 15.4.2 there occurs to his knowledge, or he becomes aware that there has occurred, a change in his percentage interest in the Voting Rights of shares of that class, that person shall be under an obligation to give to the Company notice in writing of the change, specifying the information set out in Article 15.2.

- 15.5 An obligation to give a notice to the Company under Articles 15.1, 15.3 or 15.4 shall be fulfilled without delay and in any event before the end of the second working day after the day on which it arises.
- 15.6 Every person who is to his knowledge directly or indirectly interested in the Voting Rights of [three] per cent or more of the shares of any relevant class of shares of the Company shall for as long as he remains so interested be under a continuing obligation to give to the Company notice in writing of the particulars in relation to those shares specified in Article 15.2 and of any change in those particulars, of which he becomes aware at any time after the event (or if more than one the most recent event) by virtue of which he became obliged by the preceding provisions of this Article to give notice to the Company of his interest. A notice given under this Article shall be given without delay and in any event before the end of the second working day after the day on which the person giving the notice becomes aware of the relevant facts.
- 15.7 A person shall be taken to be an indirect holder of shares under this Article 15 to the extent that he is entitled to acquire, to dispose of, or to exercise Voting Rights over such shares.
- 15.8 The Company shall not by virtue of anything done for the purposes of this Article 15 be effected with notice of, or put upon enquiry as to, the rights of any person in relation to any shares.

15.9 Register of substantial interests

- 15.9.1 The Directors shall keep a register for the purposes of this Article (in this Article hereafter referred to as the "Register of Substantial Interests") and shall procure that, whenever the Company receives information from a person in consequence of the fulfilment of an obligation imposed on him by Article 15, that information is within three working days thereafter inscribed in the Register of Substantial Interests against that person's name, together with the date of the inscription.
- 15.9.2 Unless the Register of Substantial Interests is in such a form as to constitute an index, the Directors shall ensure that the Register of Substantial Interests is made up in such a way that the entries against the respective names entered in it appear in chronological order.
- 15.9.3 The Directors shall cause to be maintained an index of the names entered in the Register of Substantial Interests, containing in relation to each such name a sufficient indication to enable the information entered against it to be readily found, and shall procure that within ten days after the date on which a name is entered in the Register of Substantial Interests any necessary alteration is made in the index.
- 15.9.4 The Register of Substantial Interests shall be kept at the registered office or at any other place determined by the Directors.
- 15.9.5 The Directors may, but shall not be required, to allow the Register of Substantial Interests to be open to inspection in the same manner as the register of Shareholders in accordance with these Articles of Association.

16. DISENFRANCHISEMENT NOTICE

- 16.1 The Board may at any time serve an Information Notice upon a Shareholder. If a Shareholder has been issued with an Information Notice and has failed in relation to any shares the subject of the Information Notice ("relevant shares") to furnish any information required by such notice within the time period specified therein, then the Board may at any time following fourteen days from the expiry of the date on which the information required to be furnished pursuant to the relevant Information Notice is due to be received by the Board, serve on the relevant holder a notice (in this Article called a "disenfranchisement notice") whereupon the following sanctions shall apply:
- 16.1.1 the Shareholder shall not with effect from the service of the disenfranchisement notice be entitled in respect of the relevant shares to be present or to vote (either in person or by representative or proxy) at any meeting of the Shareholders or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the Company or on any poll or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to any such meeting or poll; and
- 16.1.2 where the relevant shares represent at least 0.25 per cent in par value of their class:
- (a) any dividend or other money payable in respect of the relevant shares shall be withheld by the Company, which shall not have any obligation to pay interest on it and the Shareholder shall not be entitled to elect pursuant to Article 26.8 to receive shares instead of that dividend; and

- (b) subject in the case of uncertificated shares to the Relevant System no transfer, other than an approved transfer, of any relevant shares held by the Shareholder shall be registered unless the Shareholder is not himself in default as regards to supplying the information required pursuant to the relevant Information Notice and the Shareholder proves to the satisfaction of the Board that no person in default as regards supplying such information is interested in any of the shares the subject of the transfer.

16.2 The Company may at any time withdraw a disenfranchisement notice by serving on the holder of the shares to which the same relates a notice in writing to that effect (a "withdrawal notice").

16.3 Where the sanctions under Article 1.1.27 apply in relation to any shares they shall cease to have effect:

16.3.1 if the shares are transferred by means of an approved transfer;

16.3.2 at the end of the period of one week (or such shorter period as the Board may determine) following receipt by the Company of the information required by the notice mentioned in Article 16.1 and the Board being fully satisfied that such information is full and complete; or 16.3.3 on the date on which a withdrawal notice is served by the Company.

16.4 The Board may give notice in writing to any Shareholder holding relevant shares in uncertificated form requiring the Shareholder to change his holding of such shares from uncertificated form into certificated form within a specified period and then to hold such relevant shares in certificated form until the issue of a withdrawal notice; and appoint any person to take any steps, by instruction by means of the Relevant System or otherwise, in the name of any holder of relevant shares as may be required to change such shares from uncertificated form into certificated form (and such steps shall be effective as if they had been taken by such holder).

17. DIRECTORS

17.1 The Directors may be appointed by a resolution of Shareholders at a meeting of Shareholders of the Company or by a resolution of a majority of Directors entitled to vote, provided that if an appointment is by a resolution of directors, such appointment must be confirmed at the next meeting of the Shareholders of the Company. Any Shareholder shall have the right to nominate Directors for appointment by a resolution of Shareholders at a meeting of Shareholders of the Company.

17.2 No resolution for the appointment of Directors by Shareholders may be adopted in the form of written resolution.

17.3 The minimum number of Directors shall be four and there shall be no maximum number.

- 17.4 Each Director holds office for the term, if any, fixed by the resolution of Shareholders or the resolution of Directors appointing such person, or until such person's earlier death, resignation, retirement through rotation, removal or until such person is no longer permitted to act as a Director under section 111 of the Act.
- 17.5 No director shall be appointed for life or for an indefinite period.
- 17.6 A Director may be removed from office by:
- 17.6.1 a resolution passed at a meeting of Shareholders called for the purpose of removing the Director or for purposes including the removal of the Director or by a written resolution passed by at least 75 per cent of the votes of the Shareholders of the Company entitled to vote in relation thereto; or
- 17.6.2 a resolution of Directors.
- 17.7 A Director may resign his or her office by giving written notice of resignation to the Company and the resignation has effect from the date the notice is received by the Company or from such later date as may be specified in the notice.
- 17.8 At every annual shareholders' meeting, one third of the non-executive Directors are subject to retirement by rotation or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to but not exceeding one third shall retire from office by rotation, provided that if there is only one non-executive Director who is subject to retirement by rotation, he shall retire.
- 17.9 The non-executive Directors to retire by rotation shall include (so far as is necessary to obtain the number required) any non-executive Director who wishes to retire and not offer himself for re-election. Any further non-executive Directors so to retire shall (subject as aforesaid) be those of the other non-executive Directors subject to retirement by rotation who have been longest in office since their last appointment or re-appointment, but, as between persons who became or were last re-appointed non-executive Directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless otherwise agreed amongst themselves) be determined by lot. A Director who retires (whether by rotation or otherwise) shall be eligible for re-election, provided that the Board confirms (through the nomination committee, if any) a Director's eligibility based on past performance and contribution to the Board, prior to re-election and may, if willing to act, be re-appointed. The non-executive Directors to retire on each occasion (both as to numbers and identity) shall be determined by the composition of the Directors at the end of every Financial Year and no non-executive Director shall be required to retire or be relieved from retiring or be retired by reason of any change in the number or identity of the Directors after such date.
- 17.10 If the Board, or the Company as the case may be, at the meeting at which a non-executive Director retires by rotation, does not fill the vacancy created by his retirement, the retiring non-executive Director shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been re-appointed unless at the meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the reappointment of the non-executive Director is put to the meeting and lost or if the retiring non-executive Director has given notice in writing to the Company that he is unwilling to be re-elected.
- 17.11 The retirement of any Director retiring at a meeting in accordance with this Article shall not have effect until the conclusion of the meeting except where a resolution is passed to elect some other person in the place of the retiring Director or a resolution for his re-election is put to the meeting and lost in which case the retirement shall take effect at the time of election of his replacement or the time of the losing of that resolution as the case may be. A retiring Director who is re-elected or deemed to have been re-elected will continue in office without a break.

17.12 The Company shall keep a register of Directors containing:

17.12.1 the names and address of the persons who are Directors;

17.12.2 the date on which each person whose name is entered in the register was appointed as a Director; and

17.12.3 the date on which each person named as a Director ceased to be a Director of the Company.

17.13 The register of Directors may be kept in any such form as the Directors may approve, but if it is in magnetic, electronic or other data storage form, the Company must be able to produce legible evidence of its contents.

17.14 The Board may, by resolution of a disinterested quorum of Directors, fix the emoluments of Directors with respect to services to be rendered in any capacity to the Company. If by arrangement with the Board a Director shall perform or render any special duties or services outside his ordinary duties as a Director and not in his capacity as a holder of employment or executive office, he may be paid such reasonable additional remuneration as the Board may from time to time determine.

17.15 The Board may, by resolution of a disinterested quorum of Directors, pay the Directors all expenses properly incurred by the Directors in the discharge of their duties.

17.16 The Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to provide pensions or other retirement or superannuation benefits and to provide death or disability or other allowances or gratuities (whether by insurance or otherwise) for or to institute and maintain any institution, association, society, club, trust, other establishment or profit sharing, share incentive, share purchase or employee's share scheme calculated to advance the interests of the Company or to benefit any person who is or has at any time been a Director of the Company or any company which is a subsidiary company of or allied to or associated with the Company or any such subsidiary or any predecessor in business of the Company or of any subsidiary and for any member of his family and any person who is or was dependant on him. The Board may procure any of such matters be done by the Company either alone or in conjunction with any other person. Any Director or former Director shall be entitled to receive and retain for his own benefit any pension or other benefit provided under this Article and shall not be obliged to account for it to the Company.

17.17 A Director is not required to hold a share as a qualification to office.

18. POWERS OF DIRECTORS

18.1 The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by, or under the direction or supervision of the Directors. The Directors have all the powers necessary for managing, and for directing and supervising, the business and affairs of the Company. The Directors may exercise all such powers of the Company other than those required by the Act or by the Memorandum or the Articles to be exercised by the Shareholders. No alteration of the Memorandum or the Articles and no such direction given by the Company shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such alteration had not been made or such direction had not been given. Provisions contained elsewhere in these Articles as to any specific power of the Board shall not be deemed to limit the general powers given by this Article.

- 18.2 If the number of Directors is less than the minimum for the time being prescribed by these Articles the remaining Director(s) shall as soon as possible and in any event not later than three months from the date that the number falls below such minimum, fill the vacancy/ies, The failure to have the minimum number of Directors during the said three month period does not limit or negate the authority of the board of Directors or invalidate anything done by the board of Directors while their number is below the minimum number fixed in accordance with these Articles. Upon the expiry of the said three month period such Director/s shall act only for the purposes of appointing an additional Director(s) to make up such minimum or of convening a meeting of the Shareholders for the purpose of making such appointment. If there are no Directors able or willing to act, any two Shareholders may summon a meeting for the purpose of appointing Directors.
- 18.3 The Board may from time to time delegate or entrust to and confer on any Director holding executive office (including a Managing Director) such of its powers, authorities and discretion (with power to sub-delegate) for such time on such terms and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit; and revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any such powers.
- 18.4 Each Director shall exercise that person's powers as Director for a proper purpose and shall not act or agree to the Company acting in a manner that contravenes the Act, the Memorandum or the Articles. Each Director, in exercising powers or performing duties as Director, shall act honestly and in good faith in what the Director believes to be the best interests of the Company.
- 18.5 Subject to Article 18.2, the continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board.
- 18.6 The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to incur indebtedness, liabilities or obligations and to secure indebtedness, liabilities or obligations whether of the Company or of any third party.
- 18.7 All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by the Directors.
- 18.8 Any written contract, deed, instrument, power of attorney or other document may be made or executed on behalf of the Company by any person (including any Director) acting with the authority of the Directors.
- 18.9 For the purposes of Section 175 (Disposition of assets) of the Act, the Board may by resolution of Directors determine that any sale, transfer, lease, exchange or other disposition is in the usual or regular course of the business carried on by the Company and such determination is, in the absence of fraud, conclusive.

19. PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

- 19.1 Unless otherwise specified in the Act or in the Memorandum or Articles, the exercise by the Directors of a power given to them under the Act or the Memorandum or Articles shall be by a resolution passed at a meeting of, or consented to in writing by a majority of the Directors or by a majority of the members of a committee of the Directors.
- 19.2 Subject to any contrary provision in the Memorandum or Articles, a resolution of Directors is passed at a meeting of the Directors if it is approved by a majority of the Directors who are present at such meeting and (being entitled to do so) vote thereon.
- 19.3 Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Directors may regulate their proceedings as they see fit.
- 19.4 Any one Director may call a meeting of the Directors by sending a written notice to each other Director.
- 19.5 A Director shall be given reasonable notice of meetings of Directors save that any Director may waive this requirement to be given notice either before or after such meeting.
- 19.6 The Directors or any committee of Directors may meet at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as the Directors or any committee of the Directors may determine to be necessary or desirable.
- 19.7 A Director is deemed to be present at a meeting of the Directors or at a meeting of any committee of Directors if such Director participates by telephone, electronic mail or other electronic means and all Directors participating in the meeting are able to communicate with each other.
- 19.8 A Director may by a written instrument appoint an alternate who need not be a Director and the alternate shall be entitled to attend meetings of the Directors or any committee of Directors (as appropriate) in the absence of the Director who appointed such alternate and to vote or consent in the place of the Director until the appointment lapses or is terminated.
- 19.9 A meeting of the Directors is duly constituted and quorate for all purposes if at the commencement of the meeting there are two Directors present either in person (in the case of a Director who is an individual) or by a duly appointed representative (in the case of a corporate Director) or by an alternate (in either case). A person who holds office only as an alternate Director shall only be counted in the quorum if his appointed is not present. A Director or other person who is present at a meeting of the Directors in more than one capacity (that is to say as both Director and an alternate Director or as an alternate for more than one Director) shall not be counted as two or more for these purposes unless at least one other Director or alternate Director is also present. Any Director who ceases to be a Director at a meeting of the Directors may continue to be present and to act as a Director and be counted in the quorum until the termination of the meeting of the Directors if no Director objects and if otherwise a quorum of Directors would not be present.

- 19.10 The Board shall appoint one or more of the Directors as Chairman, joint Chairman or Deputy Chairman of the Board and shall determine the period for which he is or they are to hold office and may at any time remove him or them from office. If no such Chairman or Deputy Chairman is elected or if at any meeting neither a Chairman nor a Deputy Chairman is present within five minutes of the time appointed for holding it, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of such meeting. In the event of two or more joint Chairman or in the absence of a Chairman, two or more joint Deputy Chairman being present, the joint Chairman or Deputy Chairman to act as Chairman of the meeting shall be decided by those Directors present.
- 19.11 The Board may appoint one or more of their number to any office or employment under the Company (including, but without limitation, that of Chief Executive, Managing Director or joint Managing Director, assistant Managing Director or manager or any other salaried office for such period and on such terms as they think fit but not including auditor), and may enter into an agreement or arrangement with any Director for his employment by the Company or for the provision by him of any services outside the scope of the ordinary duties. Without prejudice to any claim a Director may have for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company, the appointment of any Director under this Article shall be subject to determination if he ceases from any cause to be a Director or (subject to the terms of any contract between him and the Company) if the Directors resolve that his term of office as an executive Director be terminated. Any such appointment, agreement or arrangement may be made for such period and upon such terms as a disinterested quorum of the Board may determine.
- 19.12 Any action that may be taken by the Directors or a committee of Directors at a meeting may also be taken by a resolution of Directors or a committee of Directors consented to in writing by a majority of the Directors or by a majority of the members of a committee of Directors given in person or by electronic communication and provided that a copy of the proposed resolution is sent to all of the persons entitled to consent to it. The consent may be in the form of counterparts, each counterpart being signed by one or more Directors or by one or more members of the committee of Directors. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the earliest date upon which a majority of the Directors or members of the committee of Directors has consented to the resolution by signed counterparts, unless otherwise stipulated in the relevant resolution. If any written resolution of Directors or committee of Directors is adopted otherwise than by the unanimous written consent of all Directors or all members of the committee of Directors, a copy of such resolution shall be sent to all Directors or members of the committee of Directors not consenting to such resolution forthwith upon it taking effect.
- 19.13 All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors, or by any persons acting as Directors or alternate Directors, shall as regards all persons dealing in good faith with the Company, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified or had vacated office or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director of the Company and had continued to be a Director or alternate Director and had been entitled to vote.

20. COMMITTEES

- 20.1 Subject to Article 20.3 and to the rules and regulations applicable to the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing and of any applicable Relevant System, the Directors may delegate one or more of their powers, authorities and discretion, including the power to affix the Seal, to a committee consisting of such persons as they deem fit (and which may or may not include one or more Directors).
- 20.2 Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the Directors may impose, may be made collaterally with, or to the exclusion of, their own powers and may be revoked or altered.
- 20.3 The Directors have no power to delegate to a committee of Directors such matters as may not be so delegated under the Act.
- 20.4 Articles 20.2 and 20.3 do not prevent a committee, where authorised by the Directors, from appointing such committee or, by a subsequent resolution of Directors, from appointing a sub-committee and delegating powers exercisable by the committee to the sub-committee.
- 20.5 The meetings and proceedings of each committee shall be governed mutatis mutandis by the provisions of the Articles regulating the proceedings of meeting of Directors so far as they are not superseded by any provisions in the resolution of Directors establishing the committee.

- 21.1 Subject to the Act, the Company may by resolution of Shareholders or by resolution of Directors change the location of its registered office or change its registered agent.
- 21.2 The Directors may appoint officers of the Company at such times as may be considered necessary or expedient. Any number of offices may be held by the same person.
- 21.3 The officers shall perform such duties as are prescribed at the time of their appointment, subject to any modification in such duties as may be prescribed subsequently by the Directors.
- 21.4 The emoluments of all officers shall be fixed by the Directors.
- 21.5 The officers of the Company shall hold office until their successors are duly appointed, but any officer elected or appointed by the Directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the Directors. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company may be filled by the Directors.
- 21.6 The Directors may appoint any person, including a person who is a Director, to be an agent of the Company. An agent of the Company shall have such powers and authority of the Directors, including the power and authority to affix the Seal, as are set forth in the resolution of Directors appointing the agent, except that no agent has any power or authority to approve any matter such matters in respect of which such power may not be so granted under the Act.

- 24.4 The termination of any proceedings by any judgment, order, settlement or conviction does not, by itself, create a presumption that the person did not act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the conduct of such person was unlawful.

- 24.5 Expenses, including legal fees, incurred by a Director or a former Director in defending any legal, administrative or investigative proceedings may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposal of such proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking given by or on behalf of such person to repay the amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company in accordance with Article 24.1.
- 24.6 The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article is not exclusive of any other rights to which the person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any agreement, resolution of Shareholders, resolution of Directors or otherwise, both as to acting in the person's official capacity and as to acting in another capacity while serving as a Director.

- 25.1 The Directors may authorise a distribution by the Company to Shareholders at such time and of such amount as they think fit if they are satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the Company will, immediately after the distribution, satisfy the Solvency Test. Where a distribution has been made to a Shareholder and the Company did not, immediately after the distribution, satisfy the Solvency Test, the distribution (or the value thereof) may be recovered by the Company from the Shareholder in accordance with section 58 of the Act.
- 25.2 If several persons are registered as joint holders of any shares, any one such person may give an effective receipt for any distribution.
- 25.3 Distributions to Shareholders shall be made in accordance with rules of the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing and must not provide that capital shall be repaid upon the basis that it may be called up again.

- 26.1 The Company may, by a resolution of Directors, declare and pay a distribution by way of dividend or interim dividend at such time and of such amount as the Directors think fit if the Directors are satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the Company will, immediately after the distribution, satisfy the Solvency Test.

- 26.2 Dividends may be paid in money, shares, or other property and where any difficulty arises concerning such distribution, the Board may settle it as the Board thinks expedient subject to the rules of the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing and in particular may issue fractional certificates or, subject to the Act and, in the case of shares held in uncertificated form, the Relevant System's rules, authorise and instruct any person to sell and transfer any fractions or may ignore fractions altogether, and may fix the value for distribution of any assets and may determine that cash shall be paid to any Shareholder upon the basis of the value so fixed in order to secure equality of distribution and may vest any assets to be distributed in trustees as the Board may think expedient.
- 26.3 The Directors may pay such interim dividends in respect of those shares of the Company which confer on the holders thereof deferred or non-preferred rights as well as in respect of those shares which confer on the holders thereof preferential or special rights with regard to dividends unless at the time of payment any preferential dividend is in arrears, and provided that the Directors act in good faith they shall not incur any responsibility to the holders of any shares for any damage that they may suffer by reason of the payment of an interim dividend on any shares.
- 26.4 The Board may deduct from any dividend or other money payable to any Shareholder on or in respect of a share all such sums as may be due from him to the Company on account of all calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company. No dividend shall bear interest as against the Company.

26.5 Entitlement to Dividends

- 26.5.1 Subject to the Act, the Articles and the rights of the holders of any shares entitled to any priority, preference or special privileges, and to the terms of issue of any shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid pro rata to their holdings of the relevant class of shares, and not according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid. but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date or be entitled to dividends declared after a particular date it shall rank for or be entitled to dividends accordingly.
- 26.5.2 In respect of each dividend to be paid by the Company the Directors may, subject to the rules and regulations applicable to the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing, determine a record date, and the dividend shall be payable to those persons registered as Shareholders at the close of business on the record date in respect of that dividend, and the amount payable to each Shareholder shall be determined by reference to the number of shares, or where appropriate, the number of shares of the relevant class, registered in his name at that time. In the absence of a record date being fixed, entitlement to any distribution, dividend, allotment or issue shall be determined by reference to the date on which the dividend is declared or the distribution, allotment or issue is made.
- 26.5.3 The Directors may pay the dividends or interest payable on shares, in respect of which any person is by transmission entitled to be registered as holder, to such person upon production of such certificate and evidence as would be required if such person desired to be registered as a Shareholder in respect of such shares.

26.5.4 The Shareholders in shareholders' meeting may, on the recommendation of the Board, by resolution direct that payment of any dividend declared may be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets, and in particular, of fully paid up shares or debentures of any other company or in any one or more of such ways. Where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution the Board may settle it as it thinks fit. In particular, the Board may, subject to compliance with any applicable rules of the Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing:

- (a) authorise any person to sell and transfer any fractions;
- (b) fix the value for distribution of such assets or any part of them and determine that cash payments may be made to any members on the footing of the value so fixed, in order to adjust the rights of members; and
- (c) vest any such assets in trustees on trust for the persons entitled to the dividend.

26.6 Method of Payment

26.6.1 The Company may pay any dividend, interest or other sum payable in respect of a share in cash or by direct debit, bank transfer, other means of electronic communication, cheque, dividend warrant or money order (or in respect of any uncertificated share through the Relevant System) and may send it by post or other delivery service to the registered address of the Shareholder or person entitled to it by reason of death or bankruptcy or by operation of law to the registered address of such person, or to such person and such address as such Shareholder or person may direct in writing. Every cheque, warrant or order is sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money represented by it and shall be made payable to the order of the person or persons entitled or, where an authority in that behalf shall have been received by the Company in such form as the Company shall consider sufficient, to such other person as the person or persons entitled may direct in writing. Payment of the cheque, warrant or order to the person entitled or the person specified in such authority shall be a good discharge to the Company. If any cheque, warrant or order has or shall be alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed the Directors may at the request of the person entitled to it issue a replacement cheque, warrant or order, subject to compliance with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out of pocket expenses of the Company in connection with the request as the Directors may think appropriate. Any such dividend, interest or other sum may also be paid by any other method as the Directors considers appropriate.

26.6.2 The Directors may lay down procedures for making any payment in respect of uncertificated shares through the Relevant System; allow any holder of uncertificated shares to elect to receive or not to receive any such payment through the Relevant System; and lay down procedures to enable any such holder to make, vary or revoke any such election. The making of such payment in accordance with such authority shall be a good discharge to the Company. If the payment is made on behalf of the Company through the Relevant System the Company shall not be responsible for any default in accounting for such payment to the Shareholder or other person entitled to such payment by a bank or other financial intermediary of which the Shareholder or other person is a customer for settlement purposes in connection with the Relevant System.

26.6.3 The Directors may, at their discretion, make provisions to enable such Shareholder as the Directors shall from time to time determine to receive dividends duly declared in a currency other than Euro. For the purpose of the calculation of the amount receivable in respect of any dividend, the rate of exchange to be used to determine the foreign currency equivalent of any sum payable as a dividend shall be such market rate selected by the Directors as they shall consider appropriate.

26.7 Uncashed, Unclaimed and Waiver of Dividends

26.7.2 Payment by the Directors of any unclaimed dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company as a trustee in respect thereof and any dividend unclaimed after a period of three years from the date of declaration of such dividend, or from the date such dividend becomes due for payment, shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company.

26.7.3 The Company shall hold monies due to Shareholders in trust until lawfully claimed but subject to applicable laws of prescription.

26.7.4 The waiver in whole or in part of any dividend on any share by any document shall be effective only if such document is signed by the Shareholder, or the person entitled to the share in consequence of death, bankruptcy or by operation of law, and delivered to the Company and only if or to the extent that the same is accepted as such or acted upon by the Company.

26.8 Scrip Dividends

26.8.1 The Directors may, subject to Act and the satisfaction of the Solvency Test and subject as hereinafter provided, resolve (at the same time it resolves to pay any dividend on any shares of the Company) that the Shareholder will have the option, for a particular dividend or any dividend declared within a specified period or periods but such period not exceeding five years, to elect to receive in lieu of such dividend (or part thereof) an allotment of additional shares in the Company credited as fully paid provided that an adequate number of unissued shares of the Company is available for this purpose.

26.8.2 A Shareholder may exercise such option to elect in respect of one dividend only or (if the Directors resolve that Shareholders should be so permitted) in respect of all future dividends declared within a specified period or periods ("a continuing election"). Subject to Article 26.8.4 any such continuing election shall cease to have effect upon being revoked by notice in writing delivered by the Shareholder to, or received at, the registered office or such other place as the Company may direct from time to time.

- 26.8.3 The number of shares of the Company to be allotted in lieu of any amount of dividend as aforesaid shall be determined by the Directors on such basis as they consider to be fair and reasonable.
- 26.8.4 The Directors may specify a minimum number of shares in respect of which the right of election may be exercised.
- 26.8.5 The Directors, after determining the maximum number of shares of the Company to be allotted as aforesaid, shall give notice to the Shareholders of the option to elect accorded to them and shall send with such notice forms of election which specify the procedure to be followed and the place at which and the latest date and time by which duly completed forms of election must be lodged in order to be effective. If appropriate such notice will also refer to the fact that any continuing elections remain in effect and specify the place at which and the latest date and time by which notices of revocation must be lodged if the continuing election is not to apply in respect of the dividend in question.
- 26.8.6 The Directors shall allot to the holders of those shares in respect of which the share election has been or is duly exercised in lieu of the dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which the right of election has been accorded) such number of additional shares of the Company determined as aforesaid and for such purpose the Directors shall appropriate and capitalise out of any reserve or fund as they shall determine an amount equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional shares to be so allotted and apply the same in paying up in full the appropriate number of unissued shares for allotment and distribution to and amongst those Shareholders who have given notices of election as aforesaid, such additional shares to rank pari passu in all respects with the fully paid shares of the Company then in issue save only as regards participation in the relevant dividend.
- 26.8.7 The Directors may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to any such capitalisation. The Directors may authorise any person to enter, on behalf of all the Shareholders interested, into an agreement with the Company providing for such capitalisation and matters incidental thereto and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all concerned.
- 26.8.8 The Directors may on any occasion determine that rights of election shall not be made available to any Shareholders with registered addresses in any territory where, in the absence of a registration statement or other special formalities, the circulation of an offer of rights of election would or might be unlawful and in such event the provisions aforesaid shall be construed subject to such determination.
- 26.8.9 The additional shares so allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with each other and with all other fully paid shares in issue on the record date for the distribution in respect of which the right of election has been offered except that they will not rank for any dividend or other distribution or other entitlement (including the relevant distribution and the share election in lieu of such distribution) which has been declared, paid or made by reference to such record date or any earlier record date; and the Board may terminate, suspend or amend any offer of the right to elect to receive shares in lieu of any cash distribution at any time (whether temporarily or otherwise).

26.9 Dividend reinvestment plans

- 26.9.1 The Directors may, subject to the Act, implement one or more dividend reinvestment plans ("a dividend reinvestment plan") in terms whereof Shareholders are invited to apply cash dividends which accrue or are paid or are payable to them in order to subscribe for new shares of the Company, on such basis and terms as the Directors deem appropriate.
- 26.9.2 The terms of any dividend reinvestment plan shall be published by the Company in such manner as the Directors deem appropriate, and shall as a minimum be published on its website.
- 26.9.3 Any such dividend reinvestment plan may provide that a Shareholder will have the ability to elect to subscribe for the relevant shares in respect of one dividend only or in respect of all future dividends declared, (or only in respect of future dividends declared within a specified period or periods) ("a continuing election"). Any such continuing election shall cease to have effect upon being revoked by notice in writing delivered by the Shareholder to, or received at, the registered office or such other place as the Company may direct from time to time.
- 26.9.4 Any such election (including a continuing election) made by a Shareholder shall constitute an agreement to subscribe for the relevant shares in accordance with the terms of the relevant dividend reinvestment plan.
- 26.9.5 The Directors may on any occasion determine that rights to participate in a dividend reinvestment plan shall not be made available to any Shareholders with registered addresses in any territory where, in the absence of a registration statement or other special formalities, the circulation of an offer of such rights or shares would or might be unlawful and in such event the provisions aforesaid shall be construed subject to such determination.

26.10 Reserve Fund

Before recommending a dividend (whether preferential or otherwise) the Directors may set aside any part of the net profits of the Company to a reserve fund, and may apply the same either by employing it in the business of the Company or by investing it in such manner as they think fit. Such reserve fund may be applied for the purpose of maintaining the property of the Company, replacing wasting assets, meeting contingencies, forming an insurance fund, equalising dividends, paying special dividends or bonuses, or for any other purpose for which the profits of the Company may lawfully be used. The Directors may divide the reserve fund into such special funds as it thinks fit and may consolidate into one fund any special fund or any part of any special fund into which the reserve fund may have been divided, as it thinks fit. The Directors may also carry forward to the accounts of the succeeding year or years any profit or balance of profits which they shall not think fit to distribute or to place to reserve.

26.11 Capitalisation of Reserves

- 26.11.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Directors may resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve funds, reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account (not being required for the payment of or provision for any fixed preferential dividend), and accordingly that such sum be applied:

- (a) on behalf of the Shareholders who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportion either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such Shareholders respectively or paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company to be allotted and issued credited as fully paid up to and among such Shareholders in the proportion aforesaid or partly in the one way and partly in the other; or
- (b) otherwise as the Directors may resolve.

26.11.2 Whenever such a resolution shall have been passed, the Directors may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to any such capitalisation. The Directors may authorise any person to enter, on behalf of all the Shareholders interested, into an agreement with the Company providing for such capitalisation and matters incidental thereto and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all concerned.

26.11.3 Subject to the Act, the following provisions of this Article 26 (which are without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of Article 26.11.1) apply:

- (a) where a person is granted pursuant to an employees' share scheme a right to subscribe for shares in the Company in cash at a subscription price less than their nominal value; or
- (b) where, pursuant to an employees' share scheme, the terms on which any person is entitled to subscribe in cash for shares in the Company are adjusted as a result of a capitalisation issue, rights issue or other variation of capital so that the subscription price is less than their nominal value, in any such case the Directors:

- (c) may transfer to a reserve account a sum equal to the deficiency between the subscription price and the nominal value of the shares (the "cash deficiency") from the profits or reserves of the Company which are available for distribution and not required for the payment of any preferential dividend; and
- (d) subject to Article 26.13, if such transfer is made, shall not apply that reserve account for any purpose other than paying up the cash deficiency upon the allotment of those shares.

26.12 Whenever the Company is required to allot shares pursuant to such a right to subscribe, the Directors may (subject to the Act) appropriate to capital out of the reserve account an amount equal to the cash deficiency applicable to those shares, apply that amount in paying up the deficiency on the nominal value of those shares and allot those shares credited as fully paid to the person entitled to them.

26.13 If any person ceases to be entitled to subscribe for shares as described above, the restrictions on the reserve account shall cease to apply in relation to such part of the account as is equal to the amount of the cash deficiency applicable to those shares.

26.14 No right shall be granted under any employees' share scheme under Article 26.11.3(a) and no adjustment shall be made as mentioned in Article 26.11.3(b) unless there are sufficient profits or reserves of the Company available for distribution and not required for the payment of any preferential dividend to permit the transfer to a reserve account in accordance with this Article of an amount sufficient to pay up the cash deficiency applicable to the shares concerned.

- 31.2.1 by delivering it by hand to the Shareholder at the address recorded for that Shareholder on the register of Shareholders;
- 31.2.2 by sending it by first class post or other similar delivery service to the Shareholder at the address recorded for that Shareholder on the register of Shareholders.
- 31.3 Any notice to be given to a Shareholder may be given by reference to the register of Shareholders as it stands at any time within the period of fifteen days before the notice is given (subject to the requirements of any applicable Relevant System) and no change in the register of Shareholders after that time shall invalidate the giving of the notice.
- 31.4 In the case of joint holders of shares all notices or documents shall be given to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register of Shareholders in respect of the joint holding. Notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the joint holders.
- 31.5 Time of notice to Shareholders shall be determined as follows:
- 31.5.1 If a notice or document is delivered by hand, it shall be treated as being delivered at the time it is handed to, or left for, the Shareholder at the requisite address.
- 31.5.2 If a notice or document is sent by post or other similar delivery service, it shall be treated as being delivered on the day it was posted.
- 31.5.3 If a notice or document is sent by means of electronic communication, it shall be treated as being delivered at the time it was sent notwithstanding that the Company is aware of the failure in delivery of such electronic communication. Without prejudice to such deemed delivery; if the Company is aware of the failure in delivery of an electronic communication it shall take such steps as the Board deems reasonable to deliver the notice or document to the Shareholder concerned.
- 31.5.4 If a notice or document is published on the Company's web site or on SENS or any Relevant Stock Exchange news service system, it shall be treated as being delivered when the material was first made available on the website or on SENS or any Relevant Stock Exchange news service system or, if later, when the recipient received or is deemed to have received, notice of the fact that the material was made available on the website or on SENS or on any Relevant Stock Exchange news service system, notwithstanding that the Company becomes aware that the member has failed to receive the relevant notice or other document and notwithstanding that such notice or document is subsequently delivered to the member in an alternative manner.

- 31.5.5 If a notice or document is sent by a Relevant System, it shall be treated as being delivered when the Company (or system-participant acting on its behalf) sends the issuer-instruction relating to the notice or document.
- 31.6 All notices shall simultaneously be given to the Issuer Regulation Division of the JSE, and shall be given in writing in any manner authorised by the requirements of Relevant Stock Exchange/s upon which the Company has a primary listing. All notices shall, in addition to the above, be released through SENS provided that, in the event that the shares of the Company are not listed on the JSE, all the provisions of these Articles relating to the publication of notices via SENS shall no longer apply and such notices shall thereafter only be published in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
- 31.7 Other than in the case of electronic communications, in proving delivery of the document or notice concerned it shall be sufficient to show that it was properly addressed and put into the delivery system concerned (whether by post, delivery service or Relevant System) with any fee or charge payable for communication paid or otherwise accounted for. In the case of electronic communications, proof that a notice contained in an electronic communication was sent in accordance with the recommended best practice set out in the guidance on electronic communications with Shareholders issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators from time to time shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.
- 31.8 Any Shareholder present, in person or by proxy at any meeting of the Company or of the holders of any class of shares of the Company, shall be deemed to have received due notice of such meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which such meeting was called.
- 31.9 On receipt of such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show title to a share, notice or other documents may be communicated by the Company to the person entitled to such share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or mental disorder of a Shareholder by communicating it to the representative of the deceased, trustee of the bankrupt or representative by operation of law or by any like description (either under the Shareholder's name or under the title of the representative of the deceased or the trustee of the bankrupt or like description) either:
- 31.9.1 to the address or address or location (including any number) for electronic communication (if any) agreed by the Company with the person claiming to be so entitled for the purpose of such communication; or
- 31.9.2 until such an address or location (including any number) has been so agreed, by delivering the notice or document in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death, bankruptcy, operation of law or other event had not occurred.

- 31.10 Every person who, by operation of law, transfers or by any other means becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share (other than in respect of an Information Notice) which, before his name is entered in the register of Shareholders, has been duly given to a person from whom he derives his title.
- 31.11 The Company shall not be responsible for any failure in communication beyond its control and accidental failure to send, or non-receipt by any person entitled to, any notice of meeting or other proceeding shall not invalidate the relevant meeting or other proceeding.
